Prayer for the Third Week of Advent

"At this Christmas when Christ comes, will He find a warm heart? Mark the season of Advent by loving and serving others with God's own love and concern."
— Mother Teresa, Love: A Fruit Always in Season

Advent

Into the bleakest winters of our souls, Lord, you are tiptoeing on tiny Infant feet to find us, hold our hands.
May we drop whatever it is we are so busy about these days to accept this gesture so small that it may get overlooked in our frantic search for something massive and overwhelming. Remind us that it is not you who demands large, lavish celebrations and enormous strobe-lit displays of faith. Rather, you ask only that we have the faith of a mustard seed and willingness to let a small hand take ours. We are ready!

Margaret Anne Huffman

May Christ's peace and joy surround you during this Advent Season

PUT IT ON YOUR CALENDAR

Advent Continues: Advent is a time the Catholic Church sets aside for all of us to prepare our hearts and souls for what it means for our own lives to be sent a savior. We hope you will share this preparation time with your families. As we prepare for the coming of Jesus during the Advent Season, we are called to serve as Jesus has served us as a gift from the Father. Please look on the front page on our website at www.st-paulschool.org to find daily observations. See flier under "Weekly Fliers" under the Parent Portal as to how you can celebrate advent with your family at home.

Consider the following: How do we prepare the way of the Lord? How do we get ready for his coming? You're thinking, How can I do this? I have so much to tend to right now. I have so much to do. Even if I don't sleep for the next ten days, I have no idea how I will get it all done.

So just think of one or two things that you can do to get ready for the coming of the Lord. Here are a few suggestions that have worked, more or less, for me over the past years. Maybe one or another might work for you.

- Give away one item of clothing each day. A pair of socks, a belt, a pair of shoes, a shirt. Most of us have 22 things that we can give away.
- Say "no" to two things. We are all invited to lots of parties and receptions and events. Just say "no" to two things and use the time to read or sleep or drink a cup of hot chocolate or a glass of egg nog.
- Take five minutes in the day to consciously remind yourself that every person you have interacted act with or will interact with today is a child of God, made in the image of likeness of God, and is destined to live forever with God-and with you.
- Write out one Christmas card per day. And take three minutes to say something you really want to say to that person.

These are simple and doable ways that help us to prepare for the coming of the Lord. Don't set up big preparation plans that probably cannot work. Do one or two simple things as a reminder that, more than anything else, you want to live completely and entirely aware that that you are always and forever in the presence of a God who loves you more than you can imagine.

Parents taking students out of school during school time: Please consider the consequences to your child before you make a decision to take your child out of school for a family trip that is not an emergency....understand that when you take your child out of academic instruction it causes stress to the student. They are often lost when they return, feel badly that they are behind, and often struggle to understand what is being taught when they return. We see the stress in the child and often they struggle initially coping with the insecurities and extended demands including the increased amount of homework that is required to bring them back to the level of learning

Having trouble getting into Signup.com?: Some parents have reported that they are having a difficult time using signup.com. In order to use this tool, YOU MUST DOWNLOAD CHROME AS YOUR BROWSER! You must use Chrome to log in to Signup.com with no problems....thank you for your perseverance.
